

The Alstead Board of selectmen met in open session on Tuesday July 19, 2016 at 6:30 at the municipal offices. Chairman, Chris Rietmann called the meeting to order. Tim Noonan led the pledge of allegiance.

The payment manifests were signed and the correspondences were reviewed. The minutes were amended and approved.

Dayle and Jessica Roberts spoke to the selectmen about their interest in paying off the back taxes, and fixing up 210 Gilsum Mine Rd. The Wilson's said they would like to raise their family in Alstead. The selectmen stated they were not going to take the property for back taxes.

The Champion Overhead Door estimate was discussed. The selectmen decided to use a local electrician and plumber to help lower the cost to $17019.05. Tim Noonan made a motion to accept the amended Champion Door bid, Rock seconded and motion passed.

The budget was reviewed line by line. The selectmen agreed they still need to repair the communication wires on Cobb Hill. We have an estimate from Jack Fuller. Kelly will contact Jack.

Bob Quaglin reported that Joyce Curll is working with DES to decide what other options may be available to control the dust on Pine Cliff Rd. He also reported about if the town changed the size of their gravel they used, it may help. If there were any additional costs to do this the Lake Warren Association may be able to help defray some of the costs.

Glenn Elsseser reported the town may consider selling waterfront property on Newell Pond Rd. He would like to research who the abutters are and the deeds.

Chris Hansen reported the Alstead Advisory Budget Committee meets the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month at the town offices. They welcome any residents who are interested in attending and are looking for volunteers.

Rosemarie Dowling asked if there had been any progress with the Gilsum Mine property clean up. Rock answered there had been some progress. She was also concerned with the drain on Pine Cliff. She feels it needs to be cleaned out.

Rock made a motion to adjourn the meeting, Chris seconded and motion passed, Meeting adjourned at 8:40.

Respectfully submitted,

Kelly N Wright